*Ad Majorem Dei Gloriam
To the Greater Glory of God*

Friday 11th October 2024 Issue: 6

Pre Prep 2 told us about the importance of friendship this week and it was lovely to hear how much they all care about each other. We also saw the yellow teams playing football matches at home which was a wonderful sight to see! Whilst on the subject of yellow it was fantastic to see so many of the boys supporting World Mental Health Day by wearing yellow – the wellbeing workshops talked about being grounded and Miss Laura and our fantastic wellbeing prefect, Ajay, gave us so many tips to help if we are ever feeling anxious. I learnt a lot and the breathing exercises with the hot chocolate were really helpful. Have a lovely weekend everyone! Mrs K Anthony

Congratulations to Lucas who has become an altar server at his church in Epping and served for the first time.

Prep have been writing their own folk tales then had the opportunity to read them to some of the younger boys who loved hearing them!

The mummification process came to life in Els when wrapping dead pharaohs in class!

The aliens had landed in Rec and they were busy making rockets to fly them home!

New members of choir & schola received their badges. Some of the boys then attended an ordination Mass on Friday to make the occasion very special! Thank you to all the boys and families who attended.

Prep have been looking at foods to ensure that we all eat healthily including our snacks!

Congratulations to some of our football teams: Yellow U9s who played 2 games (won 1, lost 1), U11 Blue who got to the semi finals at the ISFA tournament and Yellow U11s who played 2 games (drew 1, lost 1). Great team work boys!

Pupils who have demonstrated that they are upholding their responsibilities of being a member of Loyola are:

Ajay (Ruds) : For seeing that a friend was feeling sad so made an effort to cheer them up. Spotted by: Miss Buglass
Rory (Ruds): For seeing that a child in Kinder needed help (had a nosebleed) and going to get a member of staff. Spotted by: Miss Stratton
