Loyola News

Friday 13th September 2024 Issue: 2

It was Mary's birthday last Sunday so PP1 kindly made cards and wrote prayers. They took them to Mary and said their own prayers by her statue. On Wednesday we welcomed John Adams from Brentwood Diocese to Mass where he said he was in awe of the boys with their singing, responses and reverence to the Mass that Ruds led with Fr Page. He was visiting to present Mr Hogan with his certificate in Religious Studies (it's not just the boys who get certificates!) Well done Sir! Thursday and Friday saw excitement as the book fair opened up for all classes. The thrill of a new book is always special but when you can share this with your friends it is even better! Happy reading this weekend boys! Mrs K Anthony

Welcome to Arthur who joined Kinder this week as he is now 3!

Children who read..

Are more likely to overcome disadvantage caused by inequalities

Are more likely to be happier, healthier and experience better mental wellbeing and self-esteem

Are more likely to do better at school and make more progress across the curriculum

Are more likely to develop empathy and creativity

As a school, each half term, we will focus on different Jesuit values and qualities which will help us become aware of how we can make the world we live in a better place. Our focus for this half term is:

“to be compassionate towards others and loving by their actions and words.”

Pupils who have demonstrated that they are upholding their responsibilities of being a member of Loyola are:

Peter (Figs) : When a member of staff had dropped something Peter immediately went to help (even with his arm in a cast!) Spotted by: Mrs Anthony

Oscar (PP2): For looking out for his younger brother who only started at school this week. Spotted by: Ms Czerwinke

The Word of the Week was:

“enthusiastic”

The boys who have demonstrated this in school are: Gyaan (Rec), Hassan (PP1), Henry M (PP2), Thaddeus (Prep), Saffin (Els), Jerry (Figs), Ajay (Ruds)
Next week, we are looking for boys who show “determination”

Welcome to Señora Cassina who is teaching Spanish (Rec – Ruds) and also to Joel who has joined PP2!

No Parking

PARKING: In an attempt to stop people parking on the pavement outside school, which limits access for pedestrians, cones are being placed on the pavement for the whole of next week.

Following on from this a member of staff will be outside to remind parents not to park inconsiderately so that we keep our pupils and families safe. Please support us in this matter and do not attempt to park on Palmerston Road.
