*Ad Majorem Dei Gloriam
To the Greater Glory of God*

Wednesday 2nd April 2025 Issue: 26

We had the perfect end to our Lent term this morning as Figures re-enacted The Passion. It was such a moving performance and explained what happened to Jesus in the days leading up to His crucifixion. In quiet times leading up to Easter, let us remember all that Jesus sacrificed and what a special time Easter is. Thank you to Figures for a beautiful end to our term. Have a wonderful Easter break and I look forward to seeing you on 23rd April. Mrs K Anthony

The Big Lent Walk

Thank you for all your steps and donations. So far, we have raised £160 for CAFOD and as Harry (Figs) said, 'We were encouraged to keep walking even if we were tired because we knew it was for a good cause.'

The boys welcomed the Easter Bunny to Loyola to see our amazing Easter bonnets. A huge thanks to the PTA who kindly gave all of the boys an Easter treat too!

As a school, each half term, we will focus on different Jesuit values and qualities which will help us become aware of how we can make the world we live in a better place. Our focus for this half term is:

“to be eloquent and truthful in what they say and do”

Pupils who have demonstrated that they are upholding their responsibilities of being a member of Loyola are:

Sean (Els) : For being so kind and making a friend an Easter bonnet as well as his own. Spotted by: Mrs Anthony

“I found the plot interesting because there were several events happening at once. I was astounded when a protagonist (also known as Bottom) was transformed into a donkey by the fairy king (Oberon).” Rory

The Young Shakespeare Company

The boys from Prep, Elements, Figures and Rudiments enjoyed a very special treat this week. They took part in a performance of ‘A Midsummer Night’s Dream’ led by the amazing Young Shakespeare Company. As well as being introduced to one of Shakespeare’s famous plays, the boys were given the opportunity to contribute to the performance by acting and creating a range of sound effects. Everyone had an amazing time and the sound of wonderful laughter throughout the performance would certainly have pleased the Bard!

“We had some very talented Loyola boys acting in the play!” Ramin
