

Loyola Preparatory School Prayer Booklet

'Prayer is lifting up of the hearts and minds to God'

(Prayer & Liturgy Directory 2023)

*Ad Majorem Dei Gloriam
To the Greater Glory of God*

Prayer is in essence talking to God. This can take many forms; it can be sung, it can be spoken, it can be silent. Prayer can happen in groups or alone. It can be spontaneous or more ordered and formal. There is no right way to pray. This booklet gives an overview of prayers children at Loyola Preparatory School will come to recognise and explore.

“Dear Friends,

One of the most effective ways we have to help is that of prayer. Prayer unites us; it makes us brothers and sisters ... and reminds us of a beautiful truth which we sometimes forget. We learn to see one another as brothers and sisters.

In prayer, there are no rich and poor people, there are sons and daughters, sisters and brothers. In prayer, there is no first or second class, there is brotherhood. It is in prayer that our hearts find the strength not to be cold and insensitive in the face of injustice. In prayer, God keeps calling us, opening our hearts to charity.”

Pope Francis 2015

At Loyola some prayers are said by the whole school and some show progression, building upon prior years.

Whole School Prayers

Morning Prayer - sung

Good morning, Lord we praise your Holy name, and thank you for giving us this lovely new day.

Good morning, Lord we praise your Holy name, and thank you for giving us this lovely new day.

Or

Morning Prayer

O my God, you love me.

You're with me night and day.

I want to love you always; in all I do and say.

I'll try to please you, Father.

Bless me through the day.

Amen.

Grace before meals

Bless us, O God, as we sit together.

Bless the food we eat today.

Bless the hands that made the food.

Bless us, O God.

Amen

Grace after meals

Thank you, God, for the food we have eaten.

Thank you, God, for all our friends.

Thank you, God, for everything.

Thank you, God.

Amen.

Or

The Hail Mary

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee.

Blessed art thou among women

and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus.

Holy Mary, Mother of God,

pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death.

Amen.

The first part of the Hail Mary is biblical, drawn from Gabriel's greeting to Mary at the Annunciation and Elizabeth's greeting at the Visitation. The second part of the prayer has its origins in 15th-century Italy.

Evening Prayer

God our Father,

I come to say, thank you for your love today.

Thank you for my family, and all the friends you give to me.

Guard me in the dark of night, and in the morning send your light.

Amen.

Additional prayers are used by the whole school at Mass

Eternal Rest

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.
May they rest in peace.
Amen.

The Prayer of St Ignatius (sung)

Teach us, good Lord, to serve you as you deserve; to give, and not to count the cost, to fight, and not to heed the wounds, Teach us, good Lord, to serve you as you deserve; to toil,
and not to seek for rest, to labour, and ask for no reward, Save that of knowing that we do your will.
Through Jesus Christ, our Lord
Through Jesus Christ, our Lord.

EYFS

The Sign of the Cross

In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.
Amen.

The sign of the cross is both an action and a statement of faith. A physical reminder of our redemption in the cross and an expression of faith in the Trinity.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come.
Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us, and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

The Lord's Prayer 'is truly the summary of the whole of the Gospel'. (CCC 2761.)

KS1

Glory be to the Father

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning is now,
and ever shall be world without end.
Amen.

The doxology is a short expression of praise of the Trinity dating back to the early Church. It is used extensively in the Liturgy of the Hours and in devotions such as the Rosary.

LOWER KS2

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,

At the words that follow, up to and including the Virgin Mary, all bow.

who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting.
Amen.

Based on baptismal documents of the 8th century but related to texts of an earlier origin.

Act of Contrition

O my God,
because you are so good,
I am very sorry that I have sinned against you,
and with the help of your grace
I will not sin again.

One of the forms of the Penitent's Prayer of Sorrow found in the Rite of Penance.

Angel of God

Angel of God,
my guardian dear,
to whom God's love commits me here,
ever this day be at my side,
to light and guard, to rule and guide.
Amen.

The prayer is based on one by Reginald of Canterbury in the early 12th century.

Come, Holy Spirit

V. Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful.
R. And kindle in them the fire of your love.
V. Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created.
R. And you will renew the face of the earth. Let us pray O God, who by the light of the Holy Spirit, did instruct the hearts of your faithful, grant that by that same Holy Spirit, we may be truly wise, and ever rejoice in your consolation, Through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

This prayer is a compilation of a number of liturgical texts drawn from the Mass and Office of Pentecost and the Votive Mass of the Holy Spirit.

Prayer of St Richard of Chichester

Thanks be to you, my Lord Jesus Christ, for all the benefits which you have given me,
for all the pains and insults which you have borne for me.
O most merciful Redeemer, friend and brother,
may I know you more clearly, love you more dearly,
and follow you more nearly, day by day.
Amen.

Prayer concluding the Rosary [Hail, Holy Queen, etc. as above]

V. Pray for us, O holy Mother of God.

R. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray.

O God, whose only-begotten Son, by his life, death and resurrection, has purchased for us the rewards of eternal life, grant, we beseech thee, that meditating on these mysteries of the most holy Rosary of the Blessed Virgin Mary, we may imitate what they contain and obtain what they promise, through the same Christ our Lord.

Amen.

The Magnificat

My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord, and my spirit rejoices in God my Saviour,
for he has looked upon his handmaid in her lowliness; for behold, from this day forward,
all generations will call me blessed.

For the Almighty has done great things for me, and holy is his name.

His mercy is from age to age for those who fear him.

He has made known the strength of his arm, and has scattered the proud in their conceit of heart.

He has cast down the mighty from their thrones and has exalted those who are lowly.

He has filled the hungry with good things, and has sent the rich away empty.

He has helped his servant Israel, mindful of his mercy, even as he promised to our fathers, to Abraham and his descendants forever.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
world without end.
Amen.

Mary's song of praise was first sung to her cousin Elizabeth (Luke 1:46–55). It is sung daily at Evening Prayer.

Act of Faith

My God,
I believe in you and all that your Church teaches,
because you have said it,
and your word is true.

Act of Hope

My God,
I hope in you, for grace and for glory,
because of your promises, your mercy and your power.

Act of Love

My God,
because you are so good, I love you with all my heart,
and for your sake, I love your neighbour as myself.

Beyond KS2

The Benedictus

Blessed be the Lord God of Israel:
for he has visited his people and redeemed them;
he has raised up for us a horn of salvation in the House of David his servant,
as he spoke through the mouth of his holy ones,
his prophets from ages past:
To grant salvation from our foes,
and from the hand of all who hate us, showing mercy to our fathers, remembering his holy covenant;
the oath he swore to Abraham our father,
To grant that freed from the hand of our foes,
we may serve him without fear in holiness and righteousness all the days of our life.
And you, little child, will be called the Prophet of the Most High, for you will go before the Lord to make ready his ways:
to grant knowledge of salvation to his people by the forgiveness of their sins;
Through the tender mercy of our God, the Dawn from on high will visit us, to shine on those who sit in darkness, and those in the shadow of death; to guide our feet into the way of peace.
Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end.
Amen.

The Canticle of Zechariah, father of John the Baptist, is taken from Luke's Gospel (Luke 1:68–79). It is sung daily at Morning Prayer.

The Angelus

V. The Angel of the Lord declared unto Mary.

R. And she conceived of the Holy Spirit.

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee.

Blessed art thou among women,
and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus.

Holy Mary, Mother of God,
pray for us sinners,
now and at the hour of our death.
Amen.

V. Behold the handmaid of the Lord.

R. Be it done unto me according to thy word. Hail Mary.

V. And the Word was made flesh.

R. And dwelt among us. Hail Mary.

V. Pray for us, O holy Mother of God.

R. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray;

Pour forth, we beseech thee, O Lord,

thy grace into our hearts;

that we, to whom the Incarnation of Christ, thy Son,

was made known by the message of an angel, may by his Passion and Cross be brought to the glory of his Resurrection.

Through the same Christ, our Lord.

Amen.

The Angelus is traditionally said three times a day: at 6am, 12 noon, and 6pm.

Hail, Holy Queen (Salve Regina)

Hail, Holy Queen, Mother of Mercy,
Hail our life, our sweetness and our hope!
To thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve.
To thee do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this valley of tears!
Turn, then, most gracious Advocate, thine eyes of mercy toward us, and after this, our exile, show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus.
O clement, O loving,
O sweet Virgin Mary.

The Salve Regina is one of the Marian Anthems sung at Night Prayer.

The Memorare

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thy intercession, was left unaided.
Inspired by this confidence I fly unto thee,
O Virgin of virgins, my Mother.
To thee do I come, before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful.
O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me.
Amen.

A 16th-century version of a longer 15th-century prayer.

Jesus, Mary and Joseph

Jesus, Mary and Joseph, I give you my heart and my soul.
Jesus, Mary and Joseph, assist me in my last agony.
Jesus, Mary and Joseph, may I breathe forth my soul in peace with you.

“In the face of so many wounds that hurt us and could lead to a hardness of heart, we are called to dive into the sea of prayer, which is the sea of boundless love of God, in order to experience his tenderness.”
