

*Ad Majorem Dei Gloriam
To the Greater Glory of God*

Loyola News

Friday 15th September 2023 Issue: 2

Thank you to our new play leaders; Ralph, Ottavio, Aman, Saravanan, Mack, Felix, Karthik, Nicholas, Nathan, Bill & Eddie for giving up their lunchtimes to support the Kindergarten boys.

Our first full week has flown by! Fr Coppis and Rudiments led Mass and spoke so eloquently, reminding us of the life of St Ignatius. They also spoke of the values that are so important to our school; how we help one another, we are kind and that all we do is for the greater glory of God. Ad Majorem Dei Gloriam. Everyone took this on board and the boys have shown nothing but kindness this week. Well done. Have a lovely weekend and see you on Monday. Mrs K Anthony

The love of reading starts when the boys are very young, sharing books with each other in Kindergarten right through to completing the summer reading challenge at the local library!

“In our science lesson we had the pleasure of learning about the heart with Mr Ashbrook. The heart is our most powerful organ and is comprised of the following parts: pulmonary artery, veins, valve, vena cava, and ventricle. We also made a heart experiment which was made of 3 bottles, 4 straws, water and also food dye. All we had to do to activate our heart was hold the straw and squeeze the bottle.” (Felix & Eddie)

HAPPY BIRTHDAY!

15th - 21st September

Simon (Prep), Nathan (Ruds),
Rehan (PP1), Aman (Ruds),
Raphe (Rec), Ottavio (Ruds) &
Khalid (Ruds)

As a school, each half term, we will focus on different Jesuit values and qualities which will help us become aware of how we can make the world we live in a better place. Our focus for this half term is: “to be compassionate towards others and loving by their actions and words.” Pupils who have demonstrated that they are upholding their responsibilities of being a member of Loyola are:

Frederic (Rec) : For answering the priest in Mass and telling us that you can find Jesus at Mass. Spotted by: Mrs Anthony

Naren (Figs): For seeing the good in everything. Spotted by: Ms McFadden

The Word of the Week was:
“enthusiasm”

The boys who have demonstrated this in school are: Noah (Rec), Jude (PP1), Albert (PP2), Lucas (Prep), Jaylen (Els), Ramin (Figs), Bill (Ruds)

Next week, we are looking for boys who show “determination”

Huge congratulations to Ramin who was awarded, “Best Bowler” & the Chairman’s “Colt of the Year” award at Woodford Green cricket club. This accolade is usually reserved for the older boys but Ramin shows great talent, has an amazing attitude and is committed to the sport. Well done – everyone at Loyola is very proud of you!

Well done to Joseph and Lucas who both achieved the highest grade (distinction) in their latest LAMDA exam!

Felix (Ruds) wanted to find a way to support the local charity Haven House so enlisted the help of our good friend Mr Nicholson. Boys, from Ruds, travelled to London (on probably the hottest day) and were entertained by his stories and facts around the Egyptian mummies, the Elgin marbles, the Rosetta Stone, Anglo Saxon murders and depictions of the life of a young Jesus. Felix has raised around £400 and is now looking forward to visiting Haven House to present them with his donation. Well done Felix, great initiative!
