Loyola News

Friday 22nd September 2023 Issue: 3

It has been a mixed week and with the sudden downpours it has been important to have your raincoat! Figures led Mass, where we were reminded about how important it is to share with one another and not just material items but more importantly our time. We welcomed and congratulated Fr Adrian Lowe who has taken over as Loughton Parish priest. We are delighted as it means that he is even closer to us than before and can continue to support us in all we do. Have a lovely weekend.

It was the first U11 match of the season and they boys were on good form. They won 8-0 against Avon House with goals from Eshan (2), Ralph (1), Leo (1) and Nathan (4). Excellent team work boys!

“Pre-Prep 1 have had great fun in Pirate Week! We have learnt about our compass points and direction in Maths, created Wanted posters in English when Barnaby was kidnapped by some pirates, made parrots in Art and used tea bags to make old treasure maps in Science. All topped off with a dressing up day of fun!”

Welcome to Chance and Yuvan who have joined Kindergarten.

Rec have been looking at colours, rainbows and colour mixing this week. They did an amazing experiment using skittles!

Our focus for this half term is: “to be compassionate towards others and loving by their actions and words.” Pupils who have demonstrated that they are upholding their responsibilities of being a member of Loyola are:

Jacobo (Kinder) : Jacobo noticed it was jelly for dessert so went and got one for Miss Stratton as it is her favourite! How kind and thoughtful. Spotted by: Miss Stratton

Austin (PP2): For holding the door for everyone to go past. Spotted by: Mrs Anthony
