Loyola News

Friday 29th September 2023 Issue: 4

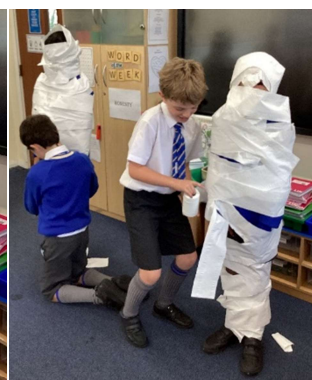

We have not had Father Michael O'Kane join us for such a long time so we were delighted to welcome him back this week! The boys were, as usual, enthralled by his anecdotes and Elements told us about the life of St Vincent De Paul who was the patron saint of charitable societies, establishing many societies to help those in need. Mack teamed up with Bill, as he served for the first time, and we had a lovely time celebrating together. Let us continue to help and think of those in need through our prayers and actions. Mrs K Anthony

Congratulations to Elias who was baptised at the weekend; welcoming Jesus into his life. We are very proud of you Elias!

Ready, Steady..... MUMMY!!!

Elements have been studying the Ancient Egyptians and re-enacted the gruesome task of organ removal and mummification

Well done to Charlie who sent a video of himself playing the piano to Blue Peter and was awarded the very special Blue Peter badge!

We're delighted that Keiran has joined Reception!

Adam is playing for Loughton Cricket club and was chosen by his team to be awarded the "Under 9: Most Improved Player 2023" What an achievement!

As a school, each half term, we will focus on different Jesuit values and qualities which will help us become aware of how we can make the world we live in a better place. Our focus for this half term is: “to be compassionate towards others and loving by their actions and words.” Pupils who have demonstrated that they are upholding their responsibilities of being a member of Loyola are:

The Head and Deputy Headboy & the Senior Prefect Team (Ruds) : For being so welcoming and spending time with our visitors at Open Morning and sharing their Loyola experience with them.

*Spotted by: Mrs Anthony
Chester & Rupert (Prep): For kindly offering to help at the end of the lesson. Spotted by: Miss Stratton*

The Word of the Week was:

“honesty”

The boys who have demonstrated this in school are: Hadi (Rec), Rehan (PP1), Leo (PP2), Arthur (Prep), William (Els), Elias (Figs), Mack (Ruds)
