Loyola News

Friday 3rd November 2023 Issue: 8

It has been rather a wet welcome back after the half term break but the wind and rain has not stopped us having fun! However, please can we ensure that all of the boys have coats in school as we will always try and get outside in between showers! On Wednesday, we were delighted to welcome Mr Savage (Chair of Trustees) and Mrs Fox (Chair of Governors) to see the school in action and to also be a part of Figures, All Saints, Mass. Here the boys spoke with confidence and sang so beautifully. Mr Savage shared his memories with us of being at Loyola himself (aged 6 years) before choosing to send his own sons here. He said that he could feel the warmth and love at Loyola which permeates through all we do and was very evident on his visit. Thank you boys and staff for being so welcoming to all who enter our school, you truly uphold the Jesuit values of showing compassion and being loving towards others in all that we do.

As a school, each half term, we will focus on different Jesuit values and qualities which will help us become aware of how we can make the world we live in a better place. Our focus for this half term is:

“to be compassionate towards others and loving by their actions and words.”

Pupils who have demonstrated that they are upholding their responsibilities of being a member of Loyola are:

Jude (PP1) : For showing how he cares for others. Spotted by: Mrs Foster

Leo (PP2): For helping a younger boy to wash his hands. Spotted by: Mr Hogan

The Word of the Week was:

“supportive”

The boys who have demonstrated this in school are: Rayan (Rec), Romeo (PP1), Axel (PP2), Archie (Prep), Darshan (Els), Ramin (Figs), Saravanan (Ruds)

Next week, we are looking for boys who are “organised”

House points
