Loyola News

Friday 25th September 2026 Issue: 4

It was wonderful to hear that the parish of St Edmund of Canterbury in Loughton celebrated its 100 year anniversary recently. They held a special Mass which was celebrated by Bishop Alan along with Fr Adrian. Henry has started altar serving there and was lucky enough to be given the job of holding the Bishop's staff - well done Henry!

We have all been enjoying the beautiful weather this week with many classes taking their learning outside. As part of our CST topic we look for ways to help the world we live in and the Eco Council are doing a great job with Terracycle. Here, we are encouraging people to bring in some of the harder to recycle packaging such as biscuit wrappers. Our box is certainly filling up and will need emptying soon – well done to everyone, let's keep this up! Have a great weekend everyone!

Shared reading and writing

Prep boys have been writing their own stories based on, 'The King of the Fishes'. They 'published' their writing into booklets and shared their creations with Pre-Prep 2, using clear, expressive voices to interest the younger listener! They did such a great job!

Keeping Ourselves Safe – In school we have agreements about what is "Acceptable Use" within technology. Please read the agreement sent home today. It is important that you and your child understand what this means and once read and discussed please sign and return to school.

As a school, each half term, we will focus on a different aspect of Catholic Social Teaching and how we are demonstrating this in our everyday lives which in turn will make the world we live in a better place. Our focus for this half term is: “Care for Creation”

Pupils who have demonstrated that they are upholding their responsibilities are: All boys who have brought in empty packets for the Terracycle scheme - Spotted by: Mrs Anthony

The Word of the Week was:

“generous”

The boys who have demonstrated this in school are: Ryan (Rec), Amraj (PP1), Aarav (PP2), Roshan (Prep), Miles (Els), Arin (Figs), Simon (Ruds)

The staff at Loyola were very “generous” today by donating cakes and money in aid of Macmillan. Mrs Fisher is definitely star baker this week with all the delicious goodies she made!

MACMILLAN CANCER SUPPORT

PP1 used some of God's wonderful creations to make their own paintbrushes!

As part of Reception's RE this week, they learnt about Baptism and how God welcomes everyone into His family. The boys have been role playing the act of Baptism in class.
