Loyola News

Friday 17th November 2023 Issue: 10

This week we welcomed our link advisor from the diocese to see how wonderful Loyola is. The boys certainly upheld our mission statement by demonstrating their talents with their wonderful singing and reading at Mass. We also had a real treat to see Fr Rob present Mack (Ruds) with his St Stephen's medal. Altar servers are enrolled into the guild of St Stephen through a liturgical rite and the medal shows the dedication of someone always willing to help at Mass and has done so for many months. Well done Mack, we are very proud of you. Mrs K Anthony

We are proud to be unique! This week was anti bullying week and we took part in lots of activities including wearing odd socks, planning an assembly, singing with Mr Hogan and making sure that we looked after each other. Thank you to the School Council for doing such a good job!

Well done to everyone coming to school in their "active wear" today. We raised £150 for Children In Need!

Our school Eco Council, led by Bill & Mack, meet every week. Our current focus is to recycle any waste paper at school. We also have a battery recycling station in PP1. Future ideas include: Meat Free Mondays, art projects, recycling soft plastics and planting our own vegetables. Eco Monitors are doing a brilliant job at making sure that all recycling is going in the right place and that we are conserving energy.

Welcome to Mrs Hannah Healey who has joined our great office team and will be taking on the role of marketing and social media!

As a school, each half term, we will focus on different Jesuit values and qualities which will help us become aware of how we can make the world we live in a better place. Our focus for this half term is:

“to be compassionate towards others and loving by their actions and words.”

Pupils who have demonstrated that they are upholding their responsibilities of being a member of Loyola are:

Ramin (Figs) : For being really kind to a younger boy in the School Council meeting this week. Spotted by: Mrs Foster

The School Council : For creating such a brilliant assembly about Anti Bullying. Spotted by: Mrs Anthony

The Word of the Week was:

“attentive”

Last night was so much fun as the PTA had organised a wreath making event led by Mrs Stonely. I never knew it was so involved but at the same time really enjoyable. Thank you to all who attended and I know our front doors are going to look spectacular!
