Loyola News

Friday 21st June 2024 Issue: 33

As you know this week brought 4 visitors to Loyola in the form of school inspectors. This was a little ironic as Ruds play on Tuesday night was all about a school being inspected! They stayed with us for 3 days and said that they really enjoyed their time with us. The boys were, as always, enthusiastic to spend time with them and tell them all about Loyola. I, and everyone else, are very proud of them. Thank you also to the many, many parents who completed the school surveys which spoke volumes. We are likely to receive the report during the summer break but will, of course, share it with you upon receipt. Thank you for your ongoing support to Loyola and to all the staff who work tirelessly to make it the best place to be! Mrs K Anthony

At Mass, PP1 explained how we need to be respectful and tolerant to all and Father Rob encouraged us to do this by following Jesus' teaching. PP1 spoke so confidently and had drawn beautiful pictures of themselves to share with us. Well done PP1!

Thank you to some of our schola boys and Mrs Thomas who sang at Brentwood Cathedral at the weekend.

The boys certainly showed that they have the X Factor as they sang, danced, joked, had quick costume changes and put on accents on Tuesday evening. Their performance of the X Factor was outstanding and all who watched were certainly entertained

Congratulations to Arthur who recently made his First Holy Communion. We look forward to celebrating with our boys at Prep's First Holy Communion Mass next week.

I am sure that the Real Simon Cowell (not Simon Trowel) would be extremely impressed!

Coming up next week...

As a school, each half term, we will focus on different Jesuit values and qualities which will help us become aware of how we can make the world we live in a better place. Our focus for this half term is:

"to live your life by setting an example to others"

Pupils who have demonstrated that they are upholding their responsibilities of being a member of Loyola are:

All of the boys : For being so kind, caring and respectful this week.
Spotted by: Mrs Anthony

PP2 have been studying colour and Kandinsky's Concentric Circles was a perfect way to explore colour mixing!

Arthur & Rupert are top of the leader board with the golden books this week!

Ashwin played as a member of the England team for the first time against Wales U12 squad and won both of his games! Well done Ashwin!

Well done to Rory for passing his piano exam, Jude for being invested into Beavers, Peter for amazing skill in rugby and Aryan for demonstrating 3 different swimming skills!
